—At the very time of Rossini's death, a new "Barber of Seville," composed by a young Italian, Dall'Argine, was produced at Bologna, and met with the most extravagant success. The friends of the young composer claim that in him they have found Rossini's successor.

—Robert Herrick, the cavalier poet of the Commonwealth and the Restoration, was related to an ancient family of the same name still flourishing in Leicestershire, and a search among their papers has disclosed letters and papers by the poet throwing light on the Commonwealth era.

—The French Government has published some statistics of the annual production of tobacco on the globe, which will be interesting to "the Coming Man." Asia takes the lead, producing 310 millions of pounds; Europe, 282 millions; America, 248 millions; Africa, 24 millions; Australia, 1 million. Total, 865 millions, or 432,500 tuns.

—A new landscape by Andreas Achenbach, in the Berlin exhibition, is much praised. It is called "After the Rain," and represents the sun breaking through flying clouds upon an October landscape. The nearly leafless trees are still dripping, a mill pond is ruffled by the wind, but the houses of a little village brighten cheerfully against the retreating storm.

—An Austrian dramatic author, Mr. Sacher-Masoch, has written a play, "Our Slaves," the leading idea of which is men's rights. His argument is that in our society the husband is slave of the wife, for whom he must work at his desk, in his office, etc., while she leads a truly Olympian life. His plan of reform is to liberate man by giving woman work and culture.

—An inveterate tobacco chewer was in the habit of declaring about once a month that he would "never chew another piece," but broke his pledge as often as he made it. On one occasion, shortly after he had "broken off for good," he was seen taking another chew. "Why," said his friend, "you told me you had given up that habit, but I see you are at it again." "Yes," he replied, "I have gone to chewing and left off lying."

—"Hallo, this house," yelled a man on the steps of an up-town mansion one cold night lately, at the same time ringing the door bell violently. "What do you want?" asked the owner, cautiously thrusting his head from an upper window. "I'm your cousin from Shrewsbury, and I want to stay here all night." "Well, you may stay there in welcome, if you'll keep quiet, and let the door bell alone," said the inhospitable fellow inside, as he shut down the window.

—A celebrated robber chief in Hungary, Andrew Juhasz, has come to an untimely end. Requiring with a volley of abuse a peasant who had sheltered him at night, near Karos, a quarrel arose. The peasant called for aid; the robber was beaten on the head and died while on the way to prison. A reward of three thousand florins has been distributed by the government among four peasants who assisted in the capture.

—A system of metallic ceilings, which consist in the application to the jointing of very thin stamped metal in ornamental embossed panels, has lately been invented. These stamped panels are fitted for every kind of decoration in color, and if inserted as plain surfaces, may be used as the ground for every description of cartoon painting, combining with lightness and durability artistic and ornamental effect, at comparatively small cost.

—Dr. Dethier, of Constantinople, has published a description of the great bronze cannon used by Mahomet II. at the seige of Constantinople. His account of its dimensions is especially interesting when contrasted with those of the great American Rodman gun, which we are very rapid to claim as the "greatest cannon in the world:"

	Rodman Gun.	Gun of Mahomet II
Weight	116,607 lbs.	80,586 lbs.
Length	25 ft.	35 ft.
Calibre	20 in.	46 in.
Charge of powder	100 lbs.	700 lbs.
Weight of ball	1,000 lbs. (stone)	1,200 lbs.

—A Rocky Mountain paper publishes an obituary notice of the famous "Jim," chief of the Washoe Indians, who died recently. Jim seems to have possessed many virtues. He is said to have been a good though very dirty red man. He possessed a well-balanced head of hair, and stomach enough for all he could get to eat. His regard for truth was notable—he never meddled with it. He left no will, and his estate, consisting of a pair of boots, will have to be settled by his heirs through the medium of a game of "old sledge."

—There is a blithesome maiden that lives next door to me; her eyes are black as midnight, and handsome as can be; her cheeks are full of dimples, and red as any rose; and then, this love of mine, too, has got a Roman nose! I asked her if she'd have me, (that was the other night), and this was her reply, friends: "Why, Jimmy, you are 'tight!'" Said I, "I know I have, love, aboard a little wine, but that is not the question—will you, or not, be mine?" And then she put her face, friends, as near mine as she could, and with the sweetest smile, friends, said simply that she would—escort me to the door, if I was ready to depart. And thus it was the girl next door declined my hand and heart.

—A remarkable account is given in a late English paper of the escape of a convict from prison. The cell in which he was confined had an iron door, with the lock on the outside. The only implements the prisoner had was a wooden spoon, some bits of wire and a needle and thread. Out of the spoon he made a key; by means of the needle he passed a thread over and under the door; bits of wire were pushed through the inspection hole and fastened to this long thread extending outside from top to bottom. The key was also pushed through, and being fastened to the thread, was brought opposite the key-hole by dexterous manipulation of the slender line, worked gently in, then turned by means of the wire, and the door was opened. This is one of the greatest exhibitions of skill and patience on record.

—A letter from Florence, Italy, says the most striking and characteristic symptoms of the Italian revolt against Parisian domination is to be found in the controversy now raging in the columns of the leading journal of Florence as to the relative merits of the French and Italian contemporary drama, and the avowed resolve of Italian dramatic writers and critics to render the national stage quite independent of French models. This controversy has for its most prominent champions, on the side of France, M. Erdan, the Florence correspondent of the Temps, and on that of Italy, Signor Ferdinando Martini, a young dramatic writer of very considerable celebrity. The contest has given rise to much discussion, and forms at the present moment one of the chief topics of conversation in Florentine society.

—In Bath, Maine, a few days since, a small lad was riding down hill at full speed on the steep road which crosses the railroad track, when a freight train came along. The little fellow struggled hard to turn his sled from the path to apparently certain death, but was unable to do so, and was carried forward and downward with the speed of lightning. But instead of being crushed, he shot across the track, between the wheels of one of the cars, like an arrow, coming out safely on the lower side. A more thrilling scene was probably never witnessed, and the bystanders held their breath in terror, expecting to see the mangled remains of the lad as the cars passed on. But the lad lived unharmed, to tell the tale of his wonderful adventure.

—The Europa (Leipzig), under the title of "The inexhaustible Paper Basket," reviews the last two volumes of the remains of Varnhagen von Ense, "Leaves of Prussian history," which have just been published by Brockhaus. It also suggests, as a proper introduction to the work, the remark of Baader to King Ludwig, of Bavaria: "Princes ought to be able to spell more correctly, and not in fright read Revolution, where, if they were wiser, they might comfortably say Evolution." The two volumes, nevertheless, are rich in political material. Varnhagen will be to the Germans of the next century, the republican and philosophical Pepys of this.

SOMERSET, KENTUCKY.

Terrible Affray—An Elopement—Hon. George M. Adams.

Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.]

SOMERSET, KY., January 23, 1869.—Monday last was our County Court day, and quite a large crowd assembled in town. Late in the day an affray took place in which W. D. Carpenter was shot in the right breast slightly, H. Dugan severely, Ere Cundiff accidental slightly, and Fred Lee cut in the arm severely, but not considered dangerous.

AN ELOPEMENT,

in (tolerable) high life took place here on the evening of Sunday last. For some months past Mr. W. P. C., a young "limb of the law," and, by the way, a very worthy young gentleman, had been paying his addresses to Miss Kate B., a handsome and accomplished young lady of tender age, and daughter of a would-be "M. C." of this place. Our young friends, agreeing between themselves to elope, laid the matter before the old folks, asking their consent in marriage, but the sentiment for Congressional honors couldn't see it in exactly that light, and forthwith filed his bill of objections, peremptorily forbidding further correspondence. But where

"Two hearts that are linked in one heavenly tie,
To the seen through all this—love on till they die,"

are found, nothing daunts them, and, acting upon their inclinations, our young friends planned an elopement to the Eastern part of Brownlowdom, where the two were made one flesh. The accompanying party consisted of Mr. W. H. M. and Miss Mary L. P., Mr. D. Y. and Miss Mattie C. Long may they live to enjoy the sweets of matrimony.

THE GREENVILLE BAR.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of Ex Governor C. S. Morehead.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.]

Probate Court met on Monday, December 27, 1868. W. L. Nugent, Esq., informed the court and bar of the death of Ex-Gov. C. S. Morehead, a member of the Greenville bar, and moved the appointment of a committee to prepare resolutions appropriate to the occasion.

Whereupon Judge Dixon appointed W. L. Nugent, John H. Nelson and S. W. Ferguson said committee; and, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, adjourned the court until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

On Tuesday morning the committee reported the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God, in his all wise providence, to remove from our midst our friend and brother, the Hon. Charles S. Morehead, whose genial qualities of mind and heart endeared him to us in no ordinary degree; and whose enlarged patriotism and extraordinary legal abilities rendered him conspicuous among the members of the bar in his adopted State; and

Whereas, We deem it no less a duty than pleasure to place upon the records of the court some enduring memorial of our love and respect for the deceased; therefore be it

Resolved, That with feelings of deepest sorrow we have learned of the death of our beloved friend and brother the Hon. Charles S. Morehead, and

Resolved, That in lamenting his death we mourn the loss of no ordinary man. By nature gifted with elements of greatness, he possessed a clear brain, an honest heart, and undoubted courage. With eminent ability he performed in all the relations of life his duty nobly and well. At the bar, as chief magistrate of his beloved State, or in the council chamber, he was outstripped by none, equaled by few. Combining purity of character with great firmness of purpose and kindness of heart, it may be said of him that he closed a long and eventful career, leaving not an enemy behind, and possessed of the greatest love, confidence and respect of all who knew him.

Resolved, That we tender our condolence to the family of the deceased, and that in token of the high regard and esteem entertained for our deceased brother, the members of the bar wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and to the Washington County Times and Louisville Courier-Journal, for publication, and that the same be spread upon the minutes of this court.

WASHINGTON.

More Railroad Projects—Grant on Confirmations—Virginia—Floyd Accepts—Georgia Representative—Bernard's Seat—Dr. Mudd—Bradley—Pluro-Pneumonia—Virginia Judges—The End of St. Thomas.

I.

WASHINGTON, January 26, 1869.

The project, termed the Pacific Central Transit Railroad and Telegraph, introduced by Senator Kellogg to day, proposes the construction of a railroad from New Orleans to Camargo, on the Rio Grande, and thence through Mexico to San Blas, on the Pacific, with branches, the most important of which is the City of Mexico. Under this bill the Louisiana Central Transit Company and the Texas Central Company are authorized to consolidate, and when the company shall have contracted ten miles of railways and telegraph, and after commissioners have examined and reported on the condition of the road, the company is authorized to issue its first-class mortgage bonds, maturing in thirty years from date of issue, at the rate of twenty-five bonds of $1000 each, bearing six per cent. interest, payable semi-annually in coin. These are to be signed officially by the Secretary of the Treasury, and this endorsement shall ipso facto constitute a first lien mortgage on the road for the protection of the Government, and so on, until the road is completed, which shall be six years. Troops and munitions of war shall be transported at reasonable rates, and the proceeds thereof are to be deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury and applied to the payment of the interest on bonds. A sinking fund is to be provided to pay bonds at their maturity. The bill grants eight sections of land for each mile of the road. The laborers on the road have the right to pre-empt forty acres each, at one dollar per acre, for a homestead. The road is less than fifteen hundred miles in length. The measure was referred.

II.

The Chronicle to-morrow will contain a double leaded semi-official statement that Gen. Grant, in private conversation during the recent week's visit to Baltimore, spiritedly denied the assertion of the newspapers of the revolutionary press that he had expressed any opinion regarding the confirmation of President Johnson's nominations; on the contrary he frequently and most emphatically asserted that he had never advised or consulted with any member of the Senate on the subject, and added that he cannot under the circumstances ask the Senate to prejudge the merits or demerits of the nominees of his predecessor. He further stated that he devoted his time exclusively to the details of the duties of the headquarters of the army.

III.

Stuart and Baldwin, of the Virginia Conservative Committee, just returned from consultation with leading Virginians at home, report the sentiment of the people fast settling down in favor of their action here. The State convention meets at Richmond March 17th, to receive the reports of the committees, and then will decide what their course will be. It is certain no action will be taken in Congress. Meanwhile all parties are seemingly desiring to allow all important legislation to be postponed until Grant takes the reins of office. The Virginians believe his influence will be exerted positively in behalf of their proposition and the harmonious settlement of their troubles.

IV.

The four cases of appeal from the Court of Claims, involving the validity of the bills of exchange, known as the Floyd acceptances, involving several million dollars, were opened this morning in the Supreme Court by Mr. Goodrich, of Boston, for the claimants. Judge Black followed on the same side and will conclude to-morrow. He held that the bills were accepted in pursuance of authority expressly conferred by the statutes, by the constant usage of all departments and recognized by various decisions of the Supreme Court. He ran a startling parallel between the character of this species of Government paper and the bonds of the United States, and maintaining that the reputation of the one involve the same for the other. The repudiation of just and ascertained debts by the War Department he treated as dishonest, illegal, and dangerous to the credit of the nation.

V.

The Reconstruction Committee also heard the statement of Mr. Corbitt, member of Congress elect from Georgia, who can't take his seat unless his disabilities are removed. No conclusion was arrived at in his case. It is said even if this relief were granted, it is not unlikely his competitor, Winfrey, may get the seat, as the carpet-baggers are dickering with an aspirant for Speaker, by which they hope to secure the seat for Winfrey, and the candidate expects their support.

VI.

The concluding arguments were heard by the committee to-day in the contested Louisiana case, and the case is now closed. It is thought the committee will reject the claims of the contestants, including Menard, the negro, and declare the seats vacant.

VII.

This afternoon the Maryland delegation in Congress proceeded from the Capitol to the White House to add their voices to the petitions before the President for the pardon of Dr. Mudd, one of the alleged conspirators. It is generally believed that Dr. Mudd and the other political prisoners will be pardoned before the fourth of March.

VIII.

The Supreme Court of the District has, in obedience to the order of the United States Supreme Court, restricted the order debarring Mr. Bradley from practice in the Court, but held that this, under the ruling of the Supreme Court of the United States, didn't restore Mr. Bradley to the Criminal Court when Fisher expelled him. It now makes a rule that no one suspended in one court of the District shall practice in any of the branches of the Supreme Court of this District; thus practically leaving Bradley where he was before the United States Supreme Court issued the mandamus.

IX.

Prof. John Gamgee, of New York, is here investigating the progress of pluro-pneumonia in this District and the adjacent counties of Maryland and Virginia. He finds the disease unmistakably present and spreading rapidly. Several members of Congress have witnessed his dissection of animals that have died of this plague, and an effort is to be made by the Commissioner of Agriculture to obtain legislation by which it can be extirpated, in accordance with the examples set by certain Eastern States.

X.

Skiff and Thomas, who ask that their disabilities shall be relieved, so that they may perform the functions of their office unintarruptedly, stated their case to the Reconstruction Committee this morning. It was their defense against the assaults of political enemies, who are throwing odious slander in the way of their relief, so as to fill their places with Radical partisans. The Judges assured the Committee that they had administered law and justice to white and black, loyal and disloyal, without fear or favor. The Committee were apparently favorably impressed with their frank statements and manly bearing.

XI.

The treaty for the purchase of St. Thomas is virtually killed. The Danish Commissioner appeared before the Foreign Relations Committee to-day and urged its ratification, but the Committee voted against it.

TENNESSEE.

The Political Prospects of Both Parties.

"Moses" Stokes vs. "Moses" Johnson.

NASHVILLE, January 26, 1869.

WHAT "MOSES" JOHNSON WILL DO.

Andrew Johnson is expected to arrive here by the middle of March. He has written to his friends to say that he will be a candidate for Governor. No one will oppose his nomination. It will be made spontaneously by the Conservatives; and his platform will consist of "universal amnesty and impartial suffrage," on which the people of Tennessee have risked their claims from the first.

He is expected to do two things:

1st. He will talk to the negroes as no one else has ever talked to them.

2d. He will waken the East Tennessee "loyalists" to a sense of the perils of the present State Government as no one else can waken them.

Johnson is not a wit like Etheridge. Nor is he an orator like Colyar. But he is a prodigy of muscular power before the Tennessee masses, who consider him a child of destiny, marked by Providence to be their next Governor.

Johnson's purpose is to secure a Conservative Legislature, which will return him to the Senate of the United States in place of Mr. Fowler. But for their faith in him the people of the State—by whom I mean the disfranchised masses—would make no contest this summer. They consider the existing system a machine; and they regard its operation as little less than certain. Johnson does not. He says he has fought a worse fight, and won it. He says he can break up the loyal leagues as he broke up the Know Nothing lodges. He will denounce the Ku-Klux in unmeasured terms. He will take strong national ground on all national questions, and he expects to carry all before him.

FLETCHER—SENTER.

The Radicals themselves apprehend his coming. Moreover, they are disunited. Fletcher will probably go into the State Senate, which will elect him Speaker. This will give him the Gubernatorial succession in '71. He is an able man—the ablest in the State on many points—and is a Republican, but not a Radical. He is backed by a growing sentiment in his party.

Senter, the present Speaker of the Senate, is in the line of safe precedents. If Brownlow should die or resign, Senter would be Governor; but Brownlow declines to do either, and Senter is secretly disconcerted. Sharewell Radicals already look on him with distrust. He was a quasi rebel in '61; and is a smart East Tennessee lawyer, with some taste and spirit. If Brownlow does not give him what he considers his right—that is the Governorship—he will do mischief. Brownlow's term as Senator begins the 4th of this coming March. His term as Governor does not expire till the following October. Will he hold on to the State office until it expires and then go to Washington and draw his back pay as Senator from the 4th of March? He will. It is plain enough to a man who has nothing to lose. But there are other considerations. There are personal and prudential motives—motives which he cannot resist—that impel him. If he should give up the Governorship to Senter, what would become of his present deputies?

THE GOVERNORS OF EAST, WEST AND MIDDLE TENNESSEE.

For Tennessee, you must know, like Gaul, is divided into three parts. These are severally designated East, Middle and West Tennessee. Dr. Pearne, a Methodist preacher at Knoxville, is Governor of East Tennessee. Dr. Boynton, a son-in-law of Brownlow, and Buck Lewis (colored) are the principal Governors of Middle Tennessee; but when they are absent or lying about loose, it is customary for those who have public business to transact to go out and hunt down a Governor or two from among the negroes and carpet-baggers of Nashville. The Governor of West Tennessee is Dr. Pearne No. 2, a brother of the Knoxville Governor. All these Governors act in the name of Brownlow, who is at home with the palsy, having ceased to be of any significance or to possess any sense of responsibility.

THE CONSERVATIVE AND RADICAL "MOSES."

The Radical party is controlled by strangers and kept going by negroes, and the coming Moses is Stokes.

This Moses is a large, thick-set Moses, a Moses with a bald pate and red face, and a voice as loud as that of Bottom, the Weaver, a Moses passing the wit of man to say what manner of Moses he is or is not.

Johnson is also a Moses,

"And when Moses meets Moses
Then comes the tug of war."

I think it is fair to predict that the chances are even; that the fight will be sharp and close; and that Johnson may come out of it with flying colors.

WHY MARTIAL LAW?

The militia bill and martial law proclamation are mere pretexts on the part of the Radicals to carry the election by force of arms.

THE NEGRO IN GEORGIA.

His Eligibility to Hold Office.

From the Columbus (Ga.) Sun of the 26th.]

The Savannah Advertiser contains the following notice of the "quo warranto" which has been sued out to test the eligibility of the negro to hold office:

"It appears that we are in a fair way to have the eligibility of negroes to hold office in the State of Georgia fully tested by the Supreme Court, and that in a case made up in Savannah. We were yesterday shown the order of Judge Schley, of the Superior Court of Chatham county, granted upon information filed by W. J. Clements Esq. The order was issued yesterday morning and made returnable on Tuesday next, the 26th, for Richard C. White to appear and show cause why a writ of quo warranto should not be issued against him, to establish by what right he holds the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham county. Arguments will be had upon his preliminary order on Tuesday, and as the most eminent counsel before our bar have been retained, a most interesting and able discussion of the question may be anticipated. It will be remembered that Mr. Clements was the opposing candidate in the contest for clerk, and was beaten. If the Supreme Court should decide that a negro is ineligible to hold office, Mr. Clements, having received the highest number of legitimate votes, will enter upon the office. The Legislature have already discussed the matter of making up a case of this character for the courts, and the present one will decide the matter once for all, as far as the courts of Georgia are concerned."

The decision of this case will settle this vexed question. If the court decides that White has a right to the office, the decision must and will be binding upon future legislatures. It can in no wise affect the state of the negroes expelled from the present Legislature. During a late trip to Atlanta we could not find out, with any satisfaction, the probable opinion of the Supreme Court as to the matter. We did find out that Justices Brown and Warner have talked to different people, in different ways, not as to the case made, but as to the general principle.

BARNUM'S OPPORTUNITY.

The Shining Lights of the Tennessee Legislature.

A Chattanooga correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes:

There are good men among our lawmakers, and at the same time there are a considerable number who could better serve the State by remaining at home. If Barnum should desire a dozen fools, I think he would have no trouble in finding them in the capitol when the Legislature is in session, and an order for a larger number might easily be filled from the same place without a very material reduction of the stock on hand.

A shining light of that august body not long ago introduced a bill to the effect that no one could teach school in the State unless he or she should first subscribe to the test oath. Another member proposed that no one should be allowed to marry in the State without first taking the iron-clad oath. An old blower by the name of Bowles, tried to get a bill through prohibiting attorneys from charging a fee when they lost a case in court. Some time ago they were arguing a measure to allow every mother of triplets a bounty of $75, that is, $25 to each child, where there were three at a birth. Recently a bill was introduced to allow all clergymen in the State to ride over railroads free of charge; and to cap the climax, some fellow jumped up and proposed that they pass a law to compel women to wear pantaloons.

In the way of novelty, I think our Legislature will compare favorably with that of any other State in the Union; for probably there is no other body of lawmakers in the country who discuss such peculiar questions as are discussed in the capitol at Nashville.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 29, 1869

A TEST OF OUR ENDURANCE.

The Radical, who, by the right of might and the usurpations of a partisan Congress, governs the people of Arkansas, and is known by the fitting title of Border-ruffian CLAYTON, has come and gone, has wandered about our streets in unrestrained freedom, visited the New Memphis, feasted his sensuous eyes at the Gaieties and Varieties, perhaps explored the subterranean mysteries of the numerous concert saloons with which our city now abounds, and passed through all unscathed. With unblushing front he has braved the popular opinion of a city whose inhabitants are allied with his victims by ties of heart, of soul, of blood, and social and political faith. He ate and drank of the best, slept in peace and security at one of our principal hotels, and enjoyed the social visits of some whose designs or political sympathy prompted them, and by others whose great wrongs compelled their presentation of petitions for a clemency he has not in all his bloody career given evidence of possessing. Heralded by a vile and venal sheet, published in impudent defiance of a patient and tolerant public; sustained in his merciless villainies and held up as a paragon of all the virtues by the same press, he held court and received, and was feasted by the leading Radicals, while poor WAFFORD was being dispatched by the red-handed negroes of his militia. After two days of enjoyment, such as our beautiful and attractive city offers to all her visitors, passing in the streets and meeting at our resorts the men and women who are exiles from their homes by reason of his infamous, indefensible and bloody policy, this violator of the peace and dignity of Arkansas, responsible before GOD and the world for the rapes and wrongs, the murders and robberies with which our columns have been burdened for weeks, entered and departed from Memphis uninjured, unhurt; not in anywise assailed by any of the hundred persons who are in mourning for their friends he procured to be killed; or by the friends of the women whose dearer than life was smothered in the brutal embrace of his negro soldiers. Surely this must pass to our credit as a test of patient endurance. That this ruffian of ruffians has sojourned in peace and enjoyed the social courtesies of assumed refined circles, been feasted and toasted, smiled on by women whose known virtues and good qualities would have prevented his approach of them, is surely to be set down to our endurance and patience under wrong, and our toleration of a class of men who could outrage the general sentiment and lend their countenance to one so gross in every wickedness.

The card of Sheriff CURRY is more than answered by such amiability as we have thus exhibited. It disproves all assertions of the presence of the Ku-Klux Klan in Memphis. It settles forever the question of our status as a law-abiding people, and must satisfy, even the incredulous Legislature and Governor of Tennessee, that Memphis is no place for the militia, but a very "loyal," a "truly loyal precinct." So general a display of indifference to the presence of the "Arkansas butcher," must achieve all that our correspondents can desire to accomplish through the proposed peace meeting, and win for us the enviable distinction that such toleration and endurance deserve. The "Austrian butcher"—HAYNAU—was driven from London by the workmen at PERKIN'S brewery; the "Arkansas butcher" came to, sojourned in, and passed out of Memphis, without so much as a frown. Are we not quiet, and peaceable, and law-abiding?

THE PROPOSED PEACE MEETING.

"Another Old Citizen," in very cordially endorsing the suggestion of "An Old Citizen" for a Peace Mass Meeting of the citizens of Shelby county, takes occasion to say that truth as well as peace must be subserved by such a meeting. He denies that the dominant party have acted, in their repressive legislation, from any apprehension of danger to themselves, and asseverates that they have used this as a pretext merely for oppression. While this is undoubtedly the case with many, we have been satisfied, for some time, that a fear of being overwhelmed by a sentiment of prejudice and opposition has goaded many others to concur in these urgent measures. While not abating one jot of opposition to all Radical oppressions and infamies, we do not see that it is necessary to herald this opposition in such a meeting as is proposed. The object of the meeting, as we understand it, has no party or mere local significance. It has been suggested in the interest of no party, nor with the view of covering the party sins of any, but in the interest of the State and all of the people.

While "Another Old Citizen," may cherish his own opinions with regard to the enormity of Radical rule, and while we shall, on all proper occasions, continue to denounce and resist it, we do not see that a Peace Meeting is the proper occasion to elicit the truths which he insists on proclaiming, and which it is his right to proclaim, and even his duty to make known on all proper occasion. If this meeting shall be held, it will be one of the gravest and most important ever held in our city. It will be for a special object, and all matter which shall be ungermain, or calculated to irritate, should be kept out of it. If not, then it would be better not to hold such a meeting. Unless all parties and classes can come together in a spirit of conciliation, we "may cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace."

—Gen. Grant refuses to be inaugurated by a ball.

PEACE.

LETTER NO. 2.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I commend your correspondent, "An Old Citizen," for his article which appeared in your columns this morning. I award him full credit for his patriotic motives, and concur in his main suggestion as to the means we should adopt to avoid impending evils. If we are to save the least vestige of Constitutional liberty it must be done by the united efforts of good and wise men brought together for the purpose, and actuated by a single motive. No experienced and thoughtful man can look over the field of observation now lying before him in this country, and doubt for a single moment that we are moving at a quick step on the high road to the wildest anarchy that ever cursed a people. Unless, therefore, we intend to fold our hands, and await in sullen silence the coming storm, we must meet and take such steps as are most likely to avoid it. I therefore most heartily second the suggestions of "An Old Citizen" to call a mass meeting of the county, and invite to it all who desire to see constitutional freedom restored and the peace of the country preserved. But in doing that, I wish to do it in the interests of truth as well as peace. That in adopting the stringent measures of 1865, a majority of the party was governed by apprehensions of danger from the "long smothered revenge supposed to be harbored in the breast of some unwise men in the South," may possibly be true; because many of them doubtless did enough to call for the severest vengeance, and conscious guilt gave vehemence to their actions. But that such is the motive that now governs the Legislative and Executive functionaries of the State is not true. No candid man can deny that the returned Confederates, as a body, have strictly observed the terms of their parole, and having felt in their persons, and experienced the evils of war, were known in a very short time after their return as the ardent friends of peace. Cases of individual conflict occasionally occurred, sometimes by the fault of one party, and sometimes by the other; but did any reasonable man expect anything else?

When did any community escape such evils on the heels of a war? especially when the combatants were members of the same community. But that the great body of the Confederates came home the friends of peace, and if allowed, would have acted as a body in the interests of peace, no truthful man in Tennessee will deny. It is true they felt that their disfranchisement and the attempt to burden them with ruinous taxes and odious discriminations were unjust; but they believed that a short probation would convince even their enemies that all these precautions were unnecessary, and would soon be abolished. Had that been done, we would have escaped the untold evils of the last three years, and the impending ruin that now threatens us would never have been heard of. But if the apprehensions of "smothered revenge" was really the active motive in prompting these measures in the spring of 1865, political sneaks were not long in finding that political "loilty" paid; and when honorable men of the party saw that these fears were groundless, they became willing to meet their old neighbors once more as brethren and friends; but the Brownlows, Smiths, Stokeses and other political whang-doodles kept up the cry of wolf because it paid. To prove this you have only to consult the records of the Legislature, and see the swelled proportions of the State expenses, and the stupendous increase of her enormous debt.

Nay, we need go no further than this city and observe the records and doings of the county commissioners, the city police, the bench of some of the courts, and the countless justices that swarm in our city, the drain of taxes under which our people now groan, to all which may be added the infamous "Loyalty Indemnity bill." The appointments made and fees collected under it, as well as the enormously swindling claims proven under its provisions. Now, Mr. Editor, I want peace, but I want truth and justice along with it. Yes, I will "seek peace and ensue it," but not at the expense of truth. Peace to be worth anything must be based upon justice and truth; no other kind is worth having. I will meet with "An Old Citizen," and other friends of peace, and concur and aid in every measure likely to lead to that result, but it must not be sought by the sacrifice of truth or the denial of justice to the best citizens of our State.

ANOTHER OLD CITIZEN.

LETTER NO. 3.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

So much has been said and written about peace since Grant uttered his famous cant phrase, "Let us have peace," that it would seem like breaking the camel's back to add another straw to the burden, but the letters published in yesterday's issue of your paper, signed respectively "An Old Citizen" and "A. P. Curry, Sheriff," are worthy of some notice, and hence the following criticism:

"Old Citizen," guided and inspired by philanthropic feelings that do credit to his heart, presents to our view a Christian code by which we should be guided, and calls, in a patriotic strain, for a great mass meeting of all classes, "black spirits and white, blue, spirits and gray," for the purpose of passing frothy resolutions in favor of peace. Does any sane or sensible man believe that "resolutions carried unanimously" will affect the mind of Brownlow or his rump Legislature? The white people of Tennessee, the disfranchised citizen, the ex-Confederate soldier, have ever been in favor of peace, but the Governor, the outrageous ly loyal Legislature, the carping Radical, the ignorant negro have not. "Old Citizen," inspired by noble impulses, asks that each one (meaning every man) shall pledge his sacred honor to maintain peace. To a less sanguine temperament than that of "Old Citizen," the ides of every negro and every scalawag Radical pledging his sacred honor to do anything, presents a subject of the most amusing character, and must necessarily disturb the gravity of the muscles. When Barbour Lewis, Hunter, Beecher, et id genus homo, come forward with the gravity of sages to pledge their sacred honors, we can only repeat, "Can such things be and overcome us like a summer cloud without our special wonder?" or, to use a more poetic expression, "Let us all laugh!" "Old Citizen," drawing largely upon a high pressure imagination, concludes that if this be done, "order will reign at Warsaw." A most unfortunate quotation, Mr. Editor, and entirely tortured out of its original meaning. The order that reigned at Warsaw now exists in Arkansas under the noble Clayton, and will in all probability come into existence under our ignoble Brownlow. The people of Arkansas, lured into fancied security by the equivocal words, "Let us have peace," met in mass meeting, passed resolutions in favor of peace, attended to their private affairs, permitted themselves to be disarmed by the negro militia, and then were at the mercy of savages. The people of West Tennessee may profit by their example.

The card or manifesto of Sheriff Curry demands a more searching examination, for beneath a mild exterior can be seen a Radical animus that forces itself to the surface. It will be noticed that our polite Sheriff sees no outrage or cause of alarm but in what he styles Ku Klux lawlessness, "pretended regulators," "masked invaders," "deeds of barbarity," "turbulent characters," "irrepressible and unprincipled men." It would have been in better taste for our Radical Sheriff to have referred to the lawless acts of those who elected him to office, the demoralized and plundered negro, excited to animosity against Southern people by Mr. Curry's political brethren. The acts, or reported acts, of the Ku-Klux, or regulators, Mr. Curry informs us, "all men, irrespective of political feeling, must condemn." Of course, Mr. Editor, that is all right, so far; but why does not our Sheriff condemn, irrespective of political feeling, the numerous lawless acts of his negro allies? We fear political feeling forced Mr. Curry to magnify the mote in his neighbor's eye, but rendered him oblivious to the beam in the eyes of his friends or black followers. He informs us that the leaders or counsellors of the Ku-Klux "are known," we presume, to our worthy Sheriff. If so, why does he stand idle? Why does he not bring to justice these leaders and counsellors, so well known? He asks every citizen, irrespective of color, of course, "to give information," "to arrest," "to give evidence," in fact to do everything appertaining to the duties of a police officer and detective. Every good citizen will be a Sheriff, so-called, under the "Card from Sheriff Curry." There is but one word in our vocabulary to express our opinion of this "last card"—stuff. Mr. Curry knows full well that the existing alarm does not arise from depredations committed by "masked horsemen," but from the conduct of our "loil" Legislature and worthy Governor, which leads our people to expect a second edition of the fiendish murders and outrages committed in Arkansas by Radical militia, in the name of loyalty. We hope, however, that the people of West Tennessee will, in every emergency, protect themselves and families from outrage, even tho' such outrage be attempted, under the lying words "Let us have peace."

If the hanging of negro horse thieves by regulators be so frightful a crime in the eyes of the outrageously loyal, how high do they roll their eyes in horror at the barbarities committed over the river? The truth may as well be told first as as last, Mr. Editor. These loyalty gentlemen believe that loyalty can do no wrong. Clayton and his saints are all right—rebels have no rights that Radicals and negroes are bound to respect. The Marion horrors are evidences of rebellion. But the moment the rope encircles the neck of a negro, these loyal gentlemen cry aloud. "Ku-Klux," "Masked invaders," etc. We will, no doubt, have the militia here. Martial law may be proclaimed, our citizens may be arrested at the instance of loyal detectives, irrespective of color, the families of our citizens may be outraged by the "loil" militia, but we have no idea that the chivalric people of West Tennessee will stand idly by with bated breath, the despicable witnesses of crimes unnamed. Far better be it for each and every citizens to be prepared to defend his home and fireside from loyal aggression, and should the defender die in the attempt he will at least die in a manner he could not live, with honor. Let us have peace, if we can, war if we must; but it will never do to get down to the Arkansas level, to be disarmed first and outraged afterwards.

NASHVILLE, January 28.—A company of militia, under Capt. Haynes, arrived to day from Knoxville, and went into camp near the city. A considerable quantity of commissary stores are being purchased.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, January 28.—The Republican State Central Committee last night appointed a committee of thirteen, consisting of the most prominent Republicans in the State, with Gov. Wells as chairman, to go to Washington and represent the Republican party. The Central Committee was enlarged and reorganized, and G. A. Gillmer chosen President. The reorganization is understood to indicate a more liberal policy on the part of the Republican party in the State. The Executive Committee made a report favoring a provisional government in Virginia if the election on the present Constitution cannot be had at an early day. This government is to be elected by the people upon the order of the commanding General, and to remain in force until the election on the Constitution is had.

NORFOLK, January 28.—The direct trade meeting called to assemble in Knoxville, has been postponed until after the Commercial Convention, which assembles in Memphis next week.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, January 28.—C. H Whittlesey concluded his argument this morning before the Reconstruction Committee against the removal of disabilities from judicial and other officers in Virginia, and against the plan of the committee of nine.

Col. Baldwin spoke briefly in defense of the Virginia Legislature in 1866. He said the labor measures were adopted after a consultation with the principal officers of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the vagrancy law was copied from that of Pennsylvania.

John A. Verritt, a negro from Lynchburg, addressed the committee in opposition to the committee of nine.

This closes the argument, and the chairman announced that he would hear no more verbal statements in relation to the removal of political disabilities, and that all future applications and arguments must be made in writing.

L. E. Chittenden, formerly Register of the Treasury, and now a broker in New York, appeared this morning before the Committee on Ways and Means and submitted an argument in favor of the removal of the existing prohibition on the further issue of gold-bearing bonds. It is understood that the committee favors the removal of such prohibition.

The Senate met this morning in Executive session, and the calendar was called, but the nominations were severally passed over, as there were on the list none that the Senate believed required immediate action, including those of Messrs. Smyth and Cummings.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, January 28.

SENATE.

Mr. Frelinghuysen, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill in relation to the appointment of midshipmen in the navy from the lately reconstructed States, which passed.

Mr. Morrill, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported favorably on the resolution proposing the appointment of a Committee of Five on Education. Resolution adopted.

Mr. Morton renewed his motion to take up the House bill for the relief of McGanahan, which, after discussion, was carried by a vote of 27 to 26, and Mr. Morton moved to send a messenger to the House for the papers connected with the case. Carried.

The special order, the Constitutional amendment, then came up. The amendment, as originally introduced by Henderson, is as follows:

SECTION 1. No State shall deny or abridge the right of its citizens to vote and hold office, on account of race, color or previous condition.

Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce the provisions of this act.

The Judiciary Committee reported as a substitute for the first section the following: "The rights of citizens of the United States to vote and hold office shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Mr. Stewart offered an amendment to the second section, which was adopted, conforming it to the language of the 13th article, that Congress shall have power to enforce this article, by appropriate legislation.

Mr. Stewart then made a brief speech in advocacy of the proposed amendment, as reported from the committee.

The substitute for the first section reported by the committee was then adopted.

Mr. Buckalow moved to amend the second clause of the first section of article twenty of the Constitution of the United States so that each State shall appoint, by a vote of the people thereof qualified to vote for Representatives in Congress, a number of electors equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives which the State may be entitled to in Congress, but no Senator, Representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an elector, and the Congress shall have power to prescribe the manner in which such electors shall be chosen by the people.

Mr. Buskalew afterwards merged the amendment into a joint resolution, which was referred.

Mr. Davis offered an amendment proposing that all constitutional amendments shall be submitted for ratification directly to the people, and after considerable discussion the amendment was withdrawn, and the House bill transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department was reported, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Blaine, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Army appropriation bill, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole, and made the special order for Monday next, after the morning hour. It appropriates $43,199 000.

Mr. Paine, from the Committee on Reconstruction, reported the resolution which he tried to offer on Monday in relation to Georgia, and the previous question was seconded and the resolution adopted. Ayes 127, nays 33.

Mr. Chandler then moved to lay the preamble on the table, which was not agreed to, and the preamble was then adopted.

Mr. Dawes, as chairman of the Committee on Elections, called up at one o'clock the report of the committee on the contested election case of Christy and Wimpy, from the 6th Georgia district. The report ends with a resolution that Christy, having voluntarily given aid, countenance, counsel and encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility to the United States is not entitled to hold a seat as Representative, and that John H. Wimpy not having received a majority of the votes cast, is not entitled to the seat. Mr. Dawes suggested that after the vote today, referring to the Reconstruction Committee the question whether Georgia should be represented in the House, he did not know but what this subject should also be referred to that Committee. Considerable discussion took place on that point, and Paine moved a postponement of the resolution until the third Tuesday in February, which was agreed to, and the House went into a Committee of the Whole on the Indian appropriation bill. It appropriates $2,133,260. The Committee rose without disposing of the bill.

Mr. Boots moved to add two members from the reconstructed States to the Pacific Railroad Committee, which was referred.

The Select Committee on the New York election frauds offered a resolution to arrest Henry Johnson, who had refused to appear before the committee.

Mr. Brooks suggested that the committee should also investigate the frauds in the late Senatorial election in New York, but it was found that there was no quorum, and the House took a recess.

HAVRE, January 28.—Details of the disaster to the steamship Pierre state that she encountered a heavy gale and high seas from the day of leaving Brest, and, after being out five days, tremendous seas boarded her, completely flooding the cabins, and killing one passenger, Miss Funckettsbury, of Germany. The vessel was tossed about to such a degree that passengers were thrown from one side to the other, and her forward deck cabin and second-class dining-saloon were completely swept away. The priest, Father Callahan, and Mr. Fahlquler, were second-class passengers, as was, also, the young lady killed. None of the first-class passengers were killed. Three of the crew were killed and several persons injured. The passengers will leave for New York by the steamer St. Laurent on Saturday.

LONDON, January 28.—Later news from Paraguay via Rio Janeiro, states that the town of Augustero, to which the Paraguayans retreated after the battle of Villeita, was soon after captured by the allied forces, and Lopez fled with the remnant of his army, into the interior.

MURDERED.

J. D. Wafford Executed by the Militia.

The Doings of Clayton in the City

Lies and Exultations of the Negro Press.

The crowning deed has been done. Another heartsickening crime has been added to the long and bloody list already charged to the account of the infamous and detestable scoundrel and murderer that we apathetically have allowed to march around our streets, with all the insolent bravado of royalty, when he ought to have been in chains.

We have already made our readers familiar with the sickening details of the murder of Harney, McAllister and Tiger. They were taken out without even a semblance of trial, law or right, and murdered. Two other prisoners were represented as being held in the jail at Marion—Wafford and Crump. After having held and tortured these two until no more could be extorted from them, either in money, gifts or otherwise, it was a day or two ago determined that Wafford, against whom nothing could be found, but who would, if turned loose, be a witness against them, must die.

In order that a semblance of law might be had as an excuse for the bloody deed, a "court martial," or military commission was summoned from among the crowd, who were to be at once judges, accusers, witnesses, and all. They were negroes, all of them—or lower in the scale of humanity—and most of them had been engaged in every robbery, rape, and murder, that had been committed in the county. Few or none of them could read, and all had the death of the victim nearest their heart, as a measure necessary to their own personal safety.

God knows what for, or by what semblance of trial, but failing in obtaining their demands, they determined that Wafford should die; and they executed the sentence, as we stated was the rumor yesterday, on Wednesday.

Now that the prisoners, or at least Wafford, is beyond reach of harm from them, we assert that a proposal was made to gentlemen in this city, by the officer commanding at Marion, to release Wafford on payment of two thousand dollars.

This finishes the drama for the present, but just so sure as God exists, we will live to see this villain and suborner of villains hunted down and punished for these infamies. The curse of blood is upon him and them, and will surely work its own vengeance.

While this scoundrel was in the city he was surrounded by an army of police and detectives, kindly furnished him at the instigation of a few hypocritical wives who affected to believe that an [illegible] would be made on his life. We attempt[illegible] no such attempt was contemplated, know that[illegible] did those who affected pated, and s[illegible]s visited, we are told, otherwise. He w[illegible]y, by "loyalists," by his organ in this co[illegible]n and admirers, who went out of Pierce[illegible]rebels, who tion, and "Ku Klux" and went out of fear and cringing.

As an illustration of his moral character, and to show how thoroughly he was identified with the Plymouth Rock hypocritical Puritanism, we are told that on Sunday, while his parson, or the chaplain of his staff, as he is grandiloquently called, was praying in his loudest and most unctious manner—literally wrestling with the Lord—to punish the d——d rebels and bless and make rich his chosen servant Clayton, that worthy was playing poker in the negroes' cabin of the Des Arc.

The steamer Richmond has sullied its cabins forever—for it bore the cut-throat and assassin away from our city yesterday. A curse follow him and his until the retribution which is sure to come, overtakes and destroys him.

The Sodality Ball.

Scarcely had the echoes of the music and laughter, of dance and revelry of the Burns' festival died away in the beautiful Cochran Hall, when a still more brilliant and joyous party assembled there to chase away the night with flying feet—the Silver Cornet Band of the Sodality of St. Peter's, who with their friends and sweethearts inaugurated their first grand ball there on Wednesday night.

The Band, as our readers are aware, is composed of young gentlemen belonging to the Sodality of St. Peter's Church, and numbers, "rank and file," fifteen members. A very few months ago, not one of them, except the leader, knew how to blow a note upon an instrument, but by constant application, hard work and natural talent, they have succeeded in making themselves very proficient in the art, and will compare favorably with any band in the city.

The officers are four in number—Band Master, Mr. Wm. H. Warrington; President, Mr. Albert Jones; Secretary, Frank Mansford, and Treasurer, John J. Duffy. The other members are Messrs John S. Sullivan, Joe P. Carey, Jos. B. Corcoran, John J. Barry, Geo. Hook, D. Brennan, J. Quigley, Mose James McBride, P. [illegible]ord and Edward McDonnel. The Band, like the society, is under the spiritual charge of the Reverend Father D. A. O'Brien. They are handsomely uniformed in black cloth coats and pants trimmed with gold lace, and white vests.

About one hundred and fifty guests were present at their ball, and among them were the very flower of the beauty of Memphis. Dancing commenced at an early hour and continued without intermission until four o'clock yesterday morning. The music, which was furnished by the Old Memphis Brass and String band, was excellent, and gave great satisfaction. The dances were about equally divided between the fancy and round dances. Supper was served about midnight, and we can congratulate the guests on having had a much better "layout" than ordinary. Altogether the affair was quite distingue and elegant, and we hope that it may soon be repeated. To the floor managers and others we tender our thanks for courtesies extended.

GERMAN NATIONAL BANK.—A few days ago we gave the result of an election of officers by the Directors of the above institution. Since which time a few public have been kept in suspense, whether the "tenure-of-office act" would apply to certain officers re judicated by the vote of the stockholders or receive in their stead strangers known only through their former New York connections. The newly elected Directory, however, solved the problem by electing, yesterday afternoon, in the place of Mr. Wisdom, President, Louis Hanauer, Esq., of the firm of Schoolfield & Hanauer, as President, and as Vice-President, M. L. Meacham, Esq., of the firm of Meacham & Treadwell. The other officers and employees of the Bank remain the same as previously announced. Messrs. MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Death of Capt J. J. Reed of the Fire Brigade.

We are pained to have to report the death of Capt. J. J. Reed, of the Shelby street (No. 2) fire engine company, which occurred last evening, about nine o'clock, from injuries received a few hours previous, during the alarm of fire. The facts attending his melancholy demise, as near as we could learn them, were as follows:

Capt. Reed, as soon as the alarm sounded, mounted his horse and rode out in advance of the engine, to ascertain in what direction the fire was. On Shelby street, between Butler and Trezevant, the horse shied at something, unseating Capt. Reed, who fell, striking on his head and fracturing his skull.

He was immediately carried to his home on Linden street, corner of Tennessee, where he was attended on by Dr. Rice. He was, however, beyond human aid from the moment he fell, and after lying in a stupor for three hours and a half, expired.

Capt. Reed was a young man, not over thirty years of age, of large stature, brave as a lion, and of most pleasing countenance and address. He had been Captain of No. 2 for about three years, we learn, when he was cut off in the flower of his youth. He leaves a wife, children, and other relatives, besides a host of warm and true friends, who will deeply and bitterly mourn his untimely end.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS.—The Little Treasure, and Margot were presented last night, Miss Mitchell taking her favorite roles of "Margot" and "Gertrude." She was admirably supported in both by Mr. Collier, and indeed by the whole troupe. Mrs. Cline, ever charming, sang, between the two pieces, the medley which she sang with so much success and rapturous encores in the White Fawn. Were she not the most modest and sensible little lady, there would be well grounded fears among her friends and well wishers that her head would be turned by the enthusiastic reception which always greet her, and the applause which she is ever certain of eliciting. To night is Miss Mitchell's farewell benefit, and she will appear in her incomparable role of Fanchon.

THE GAIETY.—In spite of wind and dust and rain, a crowded house was again assembled at Manager Ely's "Gaiety," and were entertained until the witching hour by songs, dances and comicalities. "Glimpses of Memphis" continue to elicit rounds of applause, and altogether makes a very successful show.

A VACCARO & CO.—The senior member of this firm has just returned from New Orleans, where he has purchased probably the largest stock of pure wines, brandies, etc., ever brought to Memphis, and already the large storehouse, No. 324 Front street, is being filled from cellar to roof with liquors such as the Gods sip. This house has always enjoyed the reputation of keeping none but the best, and retain that honor while fine [illegible] and on this continent or in [illegible]tion to liquors they deal in can be [illegible]. Cigars and foreign liquors in adu[illegible]. Persons wishing to purchase should call [illegible]t 324 Front street, where what we say above will be verified.

FIRES.—The alarm sounded yesterday morning about 2 o'clock turned out to be false. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a small grocery shop in the southeastern suburbs of the city was burned to the ground. No particulars.

Condensed Summary of the Proceedings of Tuesday.

NASHVILLE, January 26, 1869.

Senate.

The Senate met to-day, Speaker Senter in the chair, and twenty members present.

TAXING NEGROES.

Mr. Norman offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The colored citizens of the State have been enfranchised with equal rights before the law, it is right and proper that they should bear an equal portion of the burdens of taxation; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee of the Judiciary be instructed to prepare an amendment to the Constitution to accomplish said object.

Adopted under a suspension of the rules.

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING.

To incorporate Raleigh Springs Hotel Company.

Referred to Judiciary Committee.

To incorporate the Memphis Preserving Company. Passed.

House.

The House was called to order at ten a.m., Mr. Speaker Richards in the chair, and sixty-three members present.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Mr. Prosser: A bill to establish a Board of County Commissioners in each county in the State.

Mr. Walsh moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, upon which Mr. Singletary called the previous question. The bill was indefinitely postponed.

House bill for the sale of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad was then taken up.

Mr. Myers moved to strike out the following section:

"That the employees of the road who have been in the service of said company, or who have been employed by Receiver, shall be paid out of the proceeds of final payment, as provided in section 3 of this act. Laid on the table.

Mr. Murray moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. Lost—ayes 4, noes 59.

An amendment by Mr. Prosser, providing for the payment of hands employed by the Receiver, to the exclusion of those employed by the company, was adopted.

Provided the accounts of said employees shall be allowed and approved upon satisfactory proof thereof by the court decreeing the said sale.

Mr. Williams offered an amendment that no sale less than the lien which the State holds shall be taken by the Clerk and Master or the Chancery Court of Davidson.

Pending a discussion on the question, a motion to adjourn prevailed.

The House accordingly adjourned till 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The consideration of the Railroad Bill was resumed. A motion to refer the bill and amendments to the Finance Committee was defeated, and after some discussion Mr. Williams' amendment, providing that when the roads are put up for sale the Comptroller shall have the privilege of bidding to the extent the State has a lien on any road, was adopted.

Mr. Singletary moved the previous question on the passage of the bill, which was sustained, and the bill was amended, passed its second reading by a vote of fifty-three to fourteen, and was then referred to the Committee on Finance.

House bill on Senate amendment was taken up, the bill being to establish a special court at Humboldt, and the Senate amendment to extend the provisions of the bill to Morristown, in Grainger county. Adopted.

House bill repealing an act removing the Supreme Court from Jackson to Brownsville was taken up. Some discussion ensued, after which Mr. Murray offered an amendment removing the court to Huntingdon.

The amendment was rejected, and the bill passed its second reading.

Adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE,

Oxford, Mississippi.

Chartered by the State in 1859, and authorized to confer the Highest Educational Honors on Young Ladies.

MENTOR—AIM—CARE.—Parents and Guardians are especially invited to consider the merits of this Institution. To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young ladies of the South, is its aim. The departments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Ancient and Modern Languages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accomplished teachers, male and female.

Special care—It may be said, uncommon care is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Arts and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sentiments, to cultivate correct tastes, to preserve their health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated institutions in the land.

APPARATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus sufficient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classes in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by none in the South, and to be favored with lectures and experimental illustrations by Drs. Garland and Hilgard, the learned Professors in these Departments.

BUILDING—LOCATION.—The building, estimated to be worth $40,000, is commodious, comfortable and retired.

REFERENCES.—All patrons and pupils of the College.

Those wishing to wear mourning are required to conform in plainness of dress, but not in color. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, January 28, 1869. }

FINANCE.

The Money market to-day was rather quiet. Exchange was offered but not sufficient to supply the demand at some of our discount houses, who had to buy from their neighbors. One or two of our railroad companies have been heavy purchasers in the past day or two, while the demand from merchants continues very good. New Orleans bills are more plentiful than for some days back, and the demand is unchanged. We quote as follows:

	Buying.	Selling.
New England	¾ dis.	par@¼ dis.
New York	¾ "	"
St. Louis	¾ "	"
Louisville	¾ "	"
Cincinnati	¾ "	"
New Orleans	¾@¾ dis.	par@¼ prem.

The amendment authorizing Shelby county to issue $400,000 in bonds having passed it is now probable that County Warrants will be rapidly absorbed. There is some movement going on among dealers in this kind of money and they seem much more anxious to buy, but so far as we could learn there were no offerings. Taxpayers buy over the counter at 75@76c.

City Scrip is in demand at 72@73c, while taxpayers are unable to buy at less than 75c, and in some cases 80c is asked. This Scrip is very much unsettled and rates are hard to give accurately. Dealers in some instances declare they would not pay over 70c, at the same time they would not sell at less than 78 or 80c.

City Bonds are firm with some demand from Baltimore and New York. A dealer holding an order for $12,000 had to fill up at 53½c in small lots. A sale of $2000 was also reported at 52½c.

Police Scrip is in demand at 95@96c by dealers, who sell at 97@98c.

Bonds of 1881	113½
5-20 Bonds of 1862	113½
" " " 1864	109¾
" " " 1865	109¾
" " " 1865, new	108¾
" " " 1867	107¾
" " " 1868	107¾
10-40 "	103½
Pacific Sixes	101¾

The Stock market at the opening was off a little in some cases, but generally firm and active. At 2:10 p.m. it was active and steady and closed unsettled and irregular. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s xpress, 29½; American Express, 42½; Adams Ex., 62; United States Ex., 52; Merchants Union Ex., 17½; Quicksilver, 29; Canton, 61½; Pacific Mail, 121½; Western Union Telegraph Co., 37½; New York Central, 163½; Erie, 38½; Hudson, 136½; Reading, 96; Chicago & Alton, 149; preferred, 151; Toledo, W. & F. W., 66½; preferred, 77; St. Paul, 74½; preferred, 95½; Ft. Wayne, 133½; Ohio & Mississippi, 38½; Michigan Central, 128; Michigan Southern, 95½; Illinois Central, 138; Cleveland & Pittsburg, 95½; Cleveland & Toledo, 106½; Rock Island, 133; Chicago & Northwestern, 82½; preferred, 90½.

Sterling Exchange was steady at 109½ on 60 day bills. Gold carrying at 6@6½ per cent. in consequence of a large short interest on the market.

Tennessee Bonds opened at 68@68½ for old, with sales at 68; new 68½@68¾ with no sales, and closed lower—old 67¾@68¼, sales at 68; new 67@68, sales at 67¾.

Gold opened in New York at 136¼ and closed at 136¾. In this market we learned of only a few sales—$1500 at 135¾, $500 at 135, and $100 at 135½; selling at 136@136¼.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market opened quiet but steady—Uplands 11¼@11½d; Orleans 11¾@11¾d. There was no change at 1:20 p.m. At the close it was quiet—Uplands on the spot 11½d, afloat 11¾d; Orleans 11¾@11¾d. Sales 10,000 bales.

The New York market opened quiet but steady—Low Middlings 28½c; Uplands 29¾@29¾; Mobile 29@29½c; Orleans 29½@29½c; Good Middlings 29½c. At 11:55 a.m. the demand was moderate and prices firm. At 2 p.m. it was quiet but steady, and closed quiet but firm—Low Middlings 28½c; Middlings 29¾; Mobile 29½c; Orleans 29½c; Good Middlings 30c.

The New Orleans market at 11:30 a.m. was dull and unchanged—Middlings 27@27½c. At 2:15 p.m. it was dull and tending downwards, with sales of 2000 bales. Middlings 27½c.

In this market sales were light and holders generally firm. The only weakness noticeable was with those who had imperative orders to sell, and it must be expected where buyers are shy that in such cases prices will be very irregular. We have no doubt that Middlings sold during the day as low as 27c in these forced sales, but no tables could be found at less than 27¼@27½c, while one sale of 144 bales was reported on a basis of 28c for Middlings. We quote as follows:

Ordinary	25 @25½
Good Ordinary	26 @26½
Low Middlings	27 @—
Middlings	28 @28½
Strict Middlings	28 @28½
Good Middlings	29 @—

TRADE.

Business to-day was active and country teams were numerous upon all of our leading thoroughfares. All of them came in with cotton and go out loaded with meats and supplies generally. Very many of them go with an extra mule or work horse attached to the wagon, showing that they are already making their preparations for the coming planting season.

The committee of Western tobacco men appeared before the Ways and Means Committee on Tuesday, to urge a modification of the internal revenue law, regarding the stamping of all kinds of tobacco, and regarding the extension of further time for stamping of tobacco. The following was their language: "We earnestly oppose any extension of time as only an increase of evil, and most respectfully suggest that, upon the basis of the notices already taken by the Department, including all tax paid on goods prior to the passage of the law, and that manufactured under the instructions of the Department, and which complied with all the requirements prior to the 23d of November, stamps be furnished in a safer and more proper manner, being first imprinted with red ink to clearly designate the purpose for which they are intended, and to render those utterly valueless to the manufacturer. We also ask that after the passage of the law, the further sale of those unstamped goods be suspended until stamped, which should be within the shortest possible time, and that upon its accomplishment all tobacco and cigars found on the market without the appropriate stamp, be forfeited. We also insist that all bulk smoking tobacco be first packed in small packages in compliance with the law under the regulations lately issued by the Commissioner, except packages of pressed baled goods not exceeding five pounds, which, from the character of the articles, cannot be repacked without destruction. A bill covering these points will be introduced in the House.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Alice Dean did not get away until late last night. She laid over to get 1060 bales of cotton for Cincinnati.

The Richmond passed down yesterday evening. We are indebted to Will L. Visscher, Esq., editor of the Head Light, for a copy of that spicy sheet, published on board the Richmond. The cut-throat Clayton and his band of knaves eclipsed his staff went down on this steamer to Helena.

The fine steamer Minnesota, Capt. Miller, with Mr. Grubb in the office, will get away to-morrow for Cairo, Evansville, Louisville and Cincinnati. She has splendid passenger accommodations.

The Natoma, Capt. Pugh, will back out for Friar's Point to-day at her usual hour. Besides making all way landings the Natoma connects at Helena with the R. P. Converse for Moon Lake. Billy Fields, Sterling Whitehead and Jim Saulsbury are clerks.

The U. S. mail packet Liberty, Capt. J. B. Davis, will be in port to-day, and leaves Sunday morning for Devall's Bluff, Augusta, Jacksonport and all way points on White river, connecting with the Little Rock train and with the Fairy Queen for Little Red, Black and Upper White rivers. Jimmy Thompson and Charley Sharpe are clerks.

The good steamer Linton, Capt. Les Ware, backs out to-morrow for Wittsburg and all way landings on St. Francis river. She is the only packet this week.

The fine steamer Robinson, Capt. Wm. Blake, will leave the St. Louis wharfboat to-day at noon for Cairo and St. Louis. Alf. Grissom is her popular chief clerk.

The Bermuda will be in port to leave on Saturday for Pine Bluff. Mr. Rowland is clerk.

The fine steamer Thomas H. Allen, Capt. Reese Pritchard, is the regular U. S. mail Saturday packet for Pine Bluff and Little Rock, and all way points on the Arkansas. She connects with the Fort Smith packets at Little Rock. Walker and Thomas are her clerks.

The Louisville, Capt. Lusk, will pass down to-day at 10 o'clock for Vicksburg and New Orleans.

Capt. W. W. Fenton has disposed of the commanding interest in the Swallow to Capt. Jos. Dunlap, clerk of the Robert Burns. The latter recently commanded the Kenton, an takes charge of the Swallow this trip.

The P. W. Strader, Capt. Alf. Stein, leaves this evening for New Orleans and way points.

The steamer Elk was sold Saturday at Parkersburg, by United States Deputy Marshal W. H. Irwin, for $450, to Capt. J. W. Mubrine, of Wheeling, W. Va.

The Belle Memphis, Capt. Crane, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis. Blenker is clerk.

The Richmond carried off a lot of Memphians, who, when they found Clayton was on board, refused to travel on the boat. The whistle was blown, and a tug went after the passengers and returned them to port.

The Kentucky River Navigation Company have awarded the contracts for damming and locking the Kentucky river up to the Threeforks from what is now the head of Slack-water navigation. The work of this important improvement was to have begun Monday, and two of the locks are to be completed within a year. The work, when completed, will render the river navigable three hundred miles from its mouth.

The Northwestern Transportation Company will limit their boats this year to one hundred tons of freight each, and will run a regular line of ten steamers between Sioux City and Fort Benton. Each boat will be required to make the up trip in twenty-five days. The Deer Lodge is to be lengthened fifty feet, and will run as a passenger packet exclusively. They are building four new boats for the trade.

The steamer Leclaire, which sunk on the falls of the Ohio, Saturday night, was raised by the steamer Champion, and towed down to the Portland wharf, where she will be repaired. She was not badly damaged.

The Northern Line Packet Company, of St. Louis, has put the following steamers into commission for the next season's business: Minneapolis, Dubuque, Minnesota, Davenport, Muscatine, Sucker State, Hawkeye State, Canada, Savannah, City of Keysburg and New Boston.

The ship canal around the lower rapids of the Mississippi river, at Keokuk, Iowa, now in course of construction, with the aid of a government appropriation, is to be seven and a half miles long, and from three hundred to four hundred feet wide, in earth embankments, and two hundred and fifty feet in rock excavation. It will give six feet depth in low water and can have eight feet in high water. The outside wall will be of earth, protected by a stone rip-rap; will be ten feet wide on top, with a slope on sides of one and one half base to one vertical on the cutside, and 1½ base to one vertical on the inside, and will vary from eighteen to thirty feet in hight, so as to carry it above the high-water mark of 1851. There is to be a guard-lock at the upper end, and to lift-locks, one near the middle, having a lift of of eight feet, and one at Keokuk, lifting ten and three-fourths feet. The guard lock can also be used as a lift whenever the water in the river is three or four feet above low water mark. The locks are to be 350 long and 80 feet wide. Enough water, it is stated, will be let into the canal to give a flow of one mile per hour, which will give a water-power at Keokuk of about one thousand two hundred horse-power. The present appropriation of Congress, under which the work is done, is $700 000. The entire cost of the work is estimated at $2,560,000.

The Richmond's Head Light has the following:

"We understand from reliable authority that the steamer Dexter will make one more trip to New Orleans, and then go into the mail line between Louisville and Cincinnati."

"Great quantities of corn are being shipped to Louisville and New Albany from along the Ohio river, for the purpose of supplying stock dealers, who are sending stock South."

MURDERED.

J. D. Wafford Executed by the Militia.

The Doings of Clayton in the City

Lies and Exhortations of the Negro Press.

The crowning deed has been done. Another heartsickening crime has been added to the long and bloody list already charged to the account of the infamous and detestable scoundrel and murderer that we apathetically have allowed to march around our streets, with all the insolent bravado of royalty, when he ought to have been in chains.

We have already made our readers familiar with the sickening details of the murder of Barney, McAlister and Tice—they were taken out without even a semblance of trial, law or right, and murdered. Two other prisoners were represented as being held in the jail at Marion—Wafford and Crump. After having said and tortured these two until no more could be extorted from them, either in money, gifts or otherwise, it was a day or two ago determined that Wafford, against whom nothing could be found, but who would, if turned loose, be a witness against them, must die.

In order that a semblance of law might be had as an excuse for the bloody deed, a "court martial," or military commission was summoned from among the crowd, who were to be at once judges, accusers, witnesses, and all. They were negroes, all of them—or lower in the scale of humanity—and most of them had been engaged in every robbery, rape, and murder, that had been committed in the county. Few or none of them could read, and all had the death of the victim nearest their heart, as a measure necessary to their own personal safety.

God knows what for, or by what semblance of trial, but failing in obtaining their demands, they determined that Wafford should die; and they executed the sentence, as we stated was the rumor yesterday, on Wednesday.

Now that the prisoners, or at least Wafford, is beyond reach of harm from them, we assert that a proposal was made to gentlemen in this city, by the officer commanding at Marion, to release Wafford on payment of two thousand dollars.

This finishes the drama for the present, but just so sure as God exists, we will live to see this villain and subornor of villains hunted down and punished for these infamies. The curse of blood is upon him and them, and will surely work its own vengeance.

While this scoundrel was in the city he was surrounded by an army of police and detectives, kindly furnished him at the instigation of a few hypocritical knaves who affected to believe that an attempt would be made on his life. We know that no such attempt was contemplated, and so did those who affected otherwise. He was visited, we are told, by his organ in this city, by "loyalists," who went out of friendship and admiration, and "Ku Klux" and rebels, who went out of fear and cringing.

As an illustration of his moral character, and to show how thoroughly he was identified with the Plymouth Rock hypocritical Puritanism, we are told that on Sunday, while his parson, or the chaplain of his staff, as he is grandiloquently called, was praying in his loudest and most unctious manner—literally wrestling with the Lord—to punish the d——d rebels and bless and make rich his chosen servant Clayton, that Worthy was playing poker in the negroes' cabin of the Des Arc.

The steamer Richmond has sullied its cabins forever—for it bore the cut-throat and assassin away from our city yesterday. A curse follow him and his until the retribution which is sure to come, overtakes and destroys him.

Toucheth pitch is defiled. So he that would pursue the demon, Drink, may be led to rob, murder, lie and act the simpleton. "Touch not, taste not, handle not the unclean thing," is our advice to youth; but to the matured, if you do imbibe, when you come to the "Quaker City," bring poteen with ye.

The terrible murder of Mrs. Hill, in this city, in November, may be known to the readers of the APPEAL. It was an atrocious murder, and the mystery enveloping it has made the case one of much interest. The trial of the accused, her daughter and son-in-law, Twitchels, has closed—the former acquitted and the latter convicted of murder in the first degree. The opinion of the public is, that while Twitchell "they believe did the deed" it was not proven before the jury.

Crime is very frequent, owing to the law's delay, and we find 'tis not the fear of punishment that checks the current of vice, but a wholesome condemnation of it. The murderer who dies game upon the gallows is as heroic in the eyes of his pals as the soldier who dies for his flag. Crime cannot be eradicated so long as the passions exist, but can be modified by stringent regulations, whose greatest terror will be promptness in execution. In attending the courts we are glad to see that gentlemen of the bar are taming down, and are exhibiting less of the spread-eagle oratory, and conforming more to reason, which is more complimentary to the judgment of the "gentlemen of the jury." It is so ridiculous one had as well rush into the APPEAL office and ask the obliging Ainslie, while he extended his right arm on high, digitals convulsively clinching a stamp, and, with the roar of that brazen bull, "Ah! give me, Oh, give me that eminent sheet, that defender of Democratic faith—that imperishable bulwark of Southern rights; aye, most puissant Ainslie, give me the DAILY APPEAL. Oh, tell-her—deres de money—I-so." We can see Dick English throw that handsome head of his in position, and exclaim sarcastically, "Yubadam." Perforations, at times, am t-o-bombast, but this strained bellowing over a few vowels and consonants is supremely ridiculous, and in many cases disgusting to genius.

Anna Dickinson, that irrepressible champion of woman's rights, is lecturing, and, through her fugleman, says

GERMAN NATIONAL BANK.—A few days ago we gave the result of an election of officers by the Directors of the above institution. Since which time the public have been kept in suspense, whether the "tenure-of-office act" would apply to certain officers heretofore ejaculated by the vote of the stockholders or receive in their stead strangers known only through their former New York connections. The newly elected Directory, however, solved the problem by electing, yesterday afternoon, in the place of Mr. Wisdom, President, Louis Hanauer, Esq., of the firm of Schoolfield & Hanauer, as President, and as Vice-President, M. L. Meacham, Esq., of the firm of Meacham & Treadwell. The other officers and employees of the Bank remain the same as previously announced. Messrs. MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Death of Capt J. J. Reed of the Fire Brigade.

We are pained to have to report the death of Capt. J. J. Reed, of the Shelby street (No. 2) fire engine company, which occurred last evening, about nine o'clock, from injuries received a few hours previous, during the alarm of fire. The facts attending his melancholy demise, as near as we could learn them, were as follows:

Capt. Reed, as soon as the alarm sounded, mounted his horse and rode out in advance of the engine, to ascertain in what direction the fire was. On Shelby street, between Butler and Trezevant, the horse shied at something, unseating Capt. Reed, who fell, striking on his head and fracturing his skull.

He was immediately carried to his home on Linden street, corner of Tennessee, where he was attended on by Dr. Rice. He was, however, beyond human aid from the moment he fell, and after lying in a stupor for three hours and a half, expired.

Capt. Reed was a young man, not over thirty years of age, of large stature, brave as a lion, and of most pleasing countenance and address. He had been Captain of No. 2 for about three years, we learn, when he was cut off in the flower of his youth. He leaves a wife, children, and other relatives, besides a host of warm and true friends, who will deeply and bitterly mourn his untimely end.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS.—The Little Treasure, and Margot were presented last night, Miss Mitchell taking her favorite roles of "Margot" and "Gertrude." She was admirably supported in both by Mr. Collier, and indeed by the whole troupe. Mrs. Chase, ever charming, sang, between the two pieces, the medley which she sang with so much success and rapturous encores in the White Fawn. Were she not the most modest and sensible little lady, there would be well grounded fears among her friends and well wishers that her head would be turned by the enthusiastic reception which always greet her, and the applause which she is ever certain of eliciting. To night is Miss Mitchell's farewell benefit, and she will appear in her incomparable role of Punchon.

THE GAIETY.—In spite of wind and dust and rain, a crowded house was again assembled at Manager Ety's "Gaiety," and were entertained until the witching hour by songs, dances and comicalities. "Glimpses of Memphis" continue to elicit rounds of applause, and altogether makes a very successful show.

A VACCARO & CO.—The senior member of the firm has just returned from New Orleans, where he has purchased probably the largest stock of pure wines, brandies, etc., ever brought to Memphis, and already the large storehouse, No. 324 Front street, is being filled from cellar to roof with liquors such as the Gods sip. This house has always enjoyed the reputation of keeping none but the best, and they will retain that honor while fine liquors can be had on this continent or in Europe. In addition to liquors they deal largely in imported cigars and foreign staples of various kinds. Persons wishing to purchase should call at 324 Front street, where what we say above will be verified.

FIRES.—The alarm sounded yesterday morning about 2 o'clock turned out to be false. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a small grocery shop in the southeastern suburbs of the city was burned to the ground. No particulars.

Mr. Walsh moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, upon which Mr. Singletary called the previous question. The bill was indefinitely postponed.

House bill for the sale of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad was then taken up.

Mr. Myers moved to strike out the following section:

That the employees of the road who have been in the service of said company, or who have been employed by its servers, shall be paid out of the proceeds of first payment, as provided in section 3 of this act. Laid on the table.

Mr. Murray moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. Lost—ayes 4, noes 59.

An amendment by Mr. Prosser, providing for the payment of hands employed by the Receiver, to the exclusion of those employed by the company, was adopted.

Provided the accounts of said employees shall be allowed and approved upon satisfactory proof thereof by the court decreeing the said sale.

Mr. Williams offered an amendment that no bid less than the lien which the State holds shall be taken by the Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court of Davidson.

Pending a discussion on the question, a motion to adjourn prevailed.

The House accordingly adjourned till 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The consideration of the Railroad Bill was resumed. A motion to refer the bill and amendments to the Finance Committee was defeated, and after some discussion Mr. Williams' amendment, providing that when the roads are put up for sale the Comptroller shall have the privilege of bidding to the extent the State has a lien on any road, was adopted.

Mr. Singletary moved the previous question on the passage of the bill, which was sustained, and the bill was amended, passed its second reading by a vote of fifty three to fourteen, and was then referred to the Committee on Finance.

House bill on Senate amendment was taken up, the bill being to establish a special court at Humboldt, and the Senate amendment to extend the provisions of the bill to Morristown, in Grainger county. Adopted.

House bill repealing an act removing the Supreme Court from Jackson to Brownsville was taken up. Some discussion ensued, after which Mr. Murray offered an amendment removing the court to Huntingdon.

The amendment was rejected, and the bill passed its second reading.

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE,

Oxford, Mississippi.

Chartered by the State in 1854, and authorized to confer the Highest Educational Honors on Young Ladies.

MERITS—AIM—CARE.—Parents and Guardians are especially invited to consider the merits of this Institution. To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young ladies of the South, is its aim. The departments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Ancient and Modern Languages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accomplished teachers, male and female.

Special care—it may be said, uncommon care is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Arts and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sentiments, to cultivate correct tastes, to preserve their health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated Institutions in the land.

APPARATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus sufficient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classes in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by none in the South, and to be favored with lectures and experimental illustrations by Drs. Garland and Hilgard, the learned Professors in these Departments.

BUILDING—LOCATION.—The building, estimated to be worth $40,000, is commodious, comfortable and retired.

REFERENCES.—All patrons and pupils of the College.

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.—In charge of Rev. W. W. McMahon, is kept in a style seldom, if ever, equaled. All the teachers board in the College.

UNIFORMITY OF DRESS—ECONOMY.—Purple Calico, Brown Merino, Pink Denaine, Pink Lawn and White Dresses, Plain Hat, trimmed only with a band of black velvet. Those wishing to wear mourning are required to conform in plainness of dress, but not in color. As economy is the object of this arrangement, new pupils need not lay aside clothing already on hand, if as plain as the uniform, but when additional purchases are necessary, the uniform must be regarded.

EXPENSES.—Per session of 20 weeks, half in advance:

Preparatory Classes	$ 17 50
College Classes, proper	25 00
Ancient and Modern Languages, each	12 50
Music, each Instrument	25 00

MURDERED.

J. D. Wafford Executed by the Militia.

The Doings of Clayton in the City

Lies and Exhibitions of the Negro Press.

The crowning deed has been done. Another heartsickening crime has been added to the long and bloody list already charged to the account of the infamous and detestable scoundrel and murderer that we apathetically have allowed to march around our streets, with all the insolent bravado of royalty, when he ought to have been in chains.

We have already made our readers familiar with the sickening details of the murder of Karney, McAlister and Ticer. They were taken out without even a semblance of trial, law or right, and murdered. Two other prisoners were represented as being held in the jail at Marion—Wafford and Crump. After having held and tortured these two until no more could be extorted from them, either in money, gifts or otherwise, it was a day or two ago determined that Wafford, against whom nothing could be found, but who would, if turned loose, be a witness against them, must die.

In order that a semblance of law might be had as an excuse for the bloody deed, a "court martial," or military commission was summoned from among the crowd, who were to be at once judges, accusers, witnesses, and all. They were negroes, all of them—or lower in the scale of humanity—and most of them had been engaged in every robbery, rape, and murder, that had been committed in the county. Few or none of them could read, and all had the death of the victim nearest their heart, as a measure necessary to their own personal safety.

God knows what for, or by what semblance of trial, but failing in obtaining their demands, they determined that Wafford should die; and they executed the sentence, as we stated was the rumor yesterday, on Wednesday.

Now that the prisoners, or at least Wafford, is beyond reach of harm from them, we assert that a proposal was made to gentlemen in this city, by the officer commanding at Marion, to release Wafford on payment of two thousand dollars.

This finishes the drama for the present, but just so sure as God exists, we will live to see this villain and subborner of villains hunted down and punished for these infamies. The curse of blood is upon him and them, and will surely work its own vengeance.

While this scoundrel was in the city he was surrounded by an army of police and detectives, kindly furnished him at the instigation of a few hypocritical knaves who affected to believe that an attempt would be made on his life. We know that no such attempt was contemplated, and so did those who affected otherwise. He was visited, we are told, by his organ in this city, by "loyalists," who went out of friendship and admiration, and "Ku Klux" and rebels, who went out of fear and cringing.

As an illustration of his moral character, and to show how thoroughly he was identified with the Plymouth Rock hypocritical Puritanism, we are told that on Sunday, while his parson, or the chaplain of his staff, as he is grandiloquently called, was praying in his loudest and most unctious manner—literally wrestling with the Lord—to punish the d——d rebels and bless and make rich his chosen servant Clayton, that worthy was playing poker in the negroes' cabin of the Des Arc.

The steamer Richmond has sullied its cabins forever—for it bore the cut-throat and assassin away from our city yesterday. A curse follow him and his until the retribution which is sure to come, overtakes and destroys him.

GERMAN NATIONAL BANK.—A few days ago we gave the result of an election of officers by the Directors of the above institution. Since which time the public have been kept in suspense, whether the "tenure-of-office act" would apply to certain officers repudiated by the vote of the stockholders or receive in their stead strangers known only through their former New York connections. The newly elected Directory, however, solved the problem by electing, yesterday afternoon, in the place of Mr. Wisdom, President, Louis Hanauer, Esq., of the firm of Schoolfield & Hanauer, as President, and as Vice-President, M. L. Meacham, Esq., of the firm of Meacham & Treadwell. The other officers and employees of the Bank remain the same as previously announced. Messrs. Hanauer and Meacham represent two of the most prominent and enterprising firms of our city—both being successful merchants enjoying the esteem and confidence of the community.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Death of Capt J. J. Reed of the Fire Brigade.

We are pained to have to report the death of Capt. J. J. Reed, of the Shelby street (No. 2) fire engine company, which occurred last evening, about nine o'clock, from injuries received a few hours previous, during the alarm of fire. The facts attending his melancholy demise, as near as we could learn them, were as follows:

Capt. Reed, as soon as the alarm sounded, mounted his horse and rode out in advance of the engine, to ascertain in what direction the fire was. On Shelby street, between Butler and Trezevant, the horse shied at something, unseating Capt. Reed, who fell, striking on his head and fracturing his skull.

He was immediately carried to his home on Linden street, corner of Tennessee, where he was attended on by Dr. Rice. He was, however, beyond human aid from the moment he fell, and after lying in a stupor for three hours and a half, expired.

Capt. Reed was a young man, not over thirty years of age, of large stature, brave as a lion, and of most pleasing countenance and address. He had been Captain of No. 2 for about three years, we learn, when he was cut off in the flower of his youth. He leaves a wife, children, and other relatives, besides a host of warm and true friends, who will deeply and bitterly mourn his untimely end.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS.—The Little Treasure, and Margot were presented last night, Miss Mitchell taking her favorite roles of "Margot" and "Gertrude." She was admirably supported in both by Mr. Collier, and indeed by the whole troupe. Mrs. Cline, ever charming, sang, between the two pieces, the medley which she sang with so much success and rapturous encores in the White Fawn. Were she not the most modest and sensible little lady, there would be well grounded fears among her friends and well wishers that her head would be turned by the enthusiastic reception which always greet her, and the applause which she is ever certain of eliciting. To night is Miss Mitchell's farewell benefit, and she will appear in her incomparable role of Fanchon.

THE GAIETY.—In spite of wind and dust and rain, a crowded house was again assembled at Manager Ety's "Gaiety," and were entertained until the witching hour by songs, dances and comicalities. "Glimpses of Memphis" continue to elicit rounds of applause, and altogether makes a very successful show.

A VACCARO & Co.—The senior member of this firm has just returned from New Orleans, where he has purchased probably the largest stock of pure wines, brandies, etc., ever brought to Memphis, and already the large storehouse, No. 324 Front street, is being filled from cellar to roof with liquors such as the Gods sip. This house has always enjoyed the reputation of keeping none but the best, and they will retain that honor while fine liquors can be had on this continent or in Europe. In addition to liquors they deal largely in imported cigars and foreign staples of various kinds. Persons wishing to purchase should call at 324 Front street, where what we say above will be verified.

FIRES.—The alarm sounded yesterday morning about 2 o'clock turned out to be false. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a small grocery shop in the southeastern suburbs of the city was burned to the ground. No particulars.

TAXING NEGROES.

Mr. Norman offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The colored citizens of the State have been enfranchised with equal rights before the law, it is right and proper that they should bear an equal portion of the burdens of taxation; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee of the Judiciary be instructed to prepare an amendment to the Constitution to accomplish said object.

Adopted under a suspension of the rules.

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING.

To incorporate Raleigh Springs Hotel Company.

Referred to Judiciary Committee.

To incorporate the Memphis Preserving Company. Passed.

House.

The House was called to order at ten a.m., Mr Speaker Richards in the chair, and sixty-three members present.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Mr. Prosser: A bill to establish a Board of County Commissioners in each county in the State.

Mr. Walsh moved the indefinite postponement of the bill, upon which Mr. Singletary called the previous question. The bill was indefinitely postponed.

House bill for the sale of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad was then taken up.

Mr. Myers moved to strike out the following section:

That the employees of the road who have been in the service of said company, or who have been employed by Receivers, shall be paid out of the proceeds of first payment, as provided in section 3 of this act. Laid on the table.

Mr. Murray moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. Lost—ayes 4, noes 59.

An amendment by Mr. Prosser, providing for the payment of hands employed by the Receiver, to the exclusion of those employed by the company, was adopted.

Provided the accounts of said employees shall be allowed and approved upon satisfactory proof thereof by the court decreeing the said sale.

Mr. Williams offered an amendment that no bid less than the lien which the State holds shall be taken by the Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court of Davidson.

Pending a discussion on the question, a motion to adjourn prevailed.

The House accordingly adjourned till 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The consideration of the Railroad Bill was resumed. A motion to refer the bill and amendments to the Finances Committee was defeated, and after some discussion Mr. Williams' amendment, providing that when the roads are put up for sale the Comptroller shall have the privilege of bidding to the extent the State has a lien on any road, was adopted.

Mr. Singletary moved the previous question on the passage of the bill, which was sustained, and the bill was amended, passed its second reading by a vote of fifty three to fourteen, and was then referred to the Committee on Finance.

House bill on Senate amendment was taken up, the bill being to establish a special court at Humboldt, and the Senate amendment to extend the provisions of the bill to Morristown, in Grainger county. Adopted.

House bill repealing an act removing the Supreme Court from Jackson to Brownsville was taken up. Some discussion ensued, after which Mr. Murray offered an amendment removing the court to Huntingdon.

The amendment was rejected, and the bill passed its second reading.

Adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE,

Oxford, Mississippi.

Chartered by the State in 1854, and authorized to confer the Highest Educational Honors on Young Ladies.

MERITS—AIM—CARE.—Parents and Guardians are especially invited to consider the merits of this Institution. To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young ladies of the South, is its aim. The departments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Ancient and Modern Languages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accomplished teachers, male and female.

Special care—it may be said, uncommon care is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Arts and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sentiments, to cultivate correct tastes, to preserve their health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated institutions in the land.

APPARATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus sufficient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classes in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by none in the South, and to be favored with lectures and experimental illustrations by Drs. Garland and Hilgard, the learned Professors in these Departments.

BUILDING—LOCATION.—The building, estimated to be worth $40,000, is commodious, comfortable and retired.

REFERENCES.—All patrons and pupils of the College.

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.—In charge of Rev. W. W. McMahon, is kept in a style seldom, if ever, equaled. All the teachers board in the College.

UNIFORMITY OF DRESS—ECONOMY.—Purple Calico, Brown Merino, Pink Delaine, Pink Lawn and White Dresses, Plain Hat, trimmed only with a band of black velvet. Those wishing to wear mourning are required to conform in plainness of dress, but not in color. As economy is the object of this arrangement, new pupils need not lay aside clothing already on hand, if as plain as the uniform, but when additional purchases are necessary, the uniform must be regarded.

EXPENSES.—Per session of 20 weeks, half in advance:

Preparatory Classes	$ 17 50
College Classes, proper	25 00
Ancient and Modern Languages, each	12 50
Music, each Instrument	25 00
Use of Instruments	5 00
Ornamental branches, usual rates

Pupils charged at the above rates from the date of entrance until end of session in June, except in cases of protracted sickness.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, January 28, 1869. }

FINANCE.

The Money market to-day was rather quiet. Exchange was offered but not sufficient to supply the demand at some of our discount houses, who had to buy from their neighbors. One or two of our railroad companies have been heavy purchasers in the past day or two, while the demand from merchants continues very good. New Orleans bills are more plentiful than for some days back, and the demand is unchanged. We quote as follows:

	Buying.	Selling
New England	¼ dis.	par@¼ dis.
New York	¼ dis.	" "
St. Louis	¼ "	"
Louisville	¼ "	"
Cincinnati	¼ "	"
New Orleans	½@¾ dis.	par@¼ prem.

The amendment authorizing Shelby county to issue $400,000 in bonds having passed it is now probable that County Warrants will be rapidly absorbed. There is some movement going on among dealers in this kind of money and they seem much more anxious to buy, but so far as we could learn there were no offerings. Taxpayers buy over the counter at 75@76c.

City Scrip is in demand at 72@73c, while taxpayers are unable to buy at less than 75c, and in some cases 80c is asked. This Scrip is very much unsettled and rates are hard to give accurately. Dealers in some instances declare they would not pay over 70c, at the same time they would not sell at less than 78 or 80c.

City Bonds are firm with some demand from Baltimore and New York. A dealer holding an order for $12,000 had to fill up at 53½c in small lots. A sale of $2000 was also reported at 52½c.

Police Scrip is in demand at 95@96c by dealers, who sell at 97@98c.

Bonds of 1881	112½
5-20 Bonds of 1862	111½
" " 1864	106
" " 1865	110½
" " 1865, new issue	108½
" " 1867, "	108½
" " 1868, "	108
10-40 "	101½
Pacific Sixes	101½

The Stock market at the opening was off a little in some cases, but generally firm and active. At 2:10 p.m. it was active and steady and closed unsettled and irregular. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s xpress, 29½; American Express, 42½; Adams Ex., 62; United States Ex., 52; Merchants Union Ex., 17½; Quicksilver, 23; Canton, 61½; Pacific Mail, 121½; Western Union Telegraph Co., 37½; New York Central, 163½; Erie, 38½; Hudson, 136½; Reading, 96; Chicago & Alton, 149; preferred, 151; Toledo, W. & F. W., 66½; preferred, 77; St. Paul, 74½; preferred, 95½; Ft. Wayne, 133½; Ohio & Mississippi, 38½; Michigan Central, 128; Michigan Southern, 95½; Illinois Central, 138; Cleveland & Pittsburg, 95½; Cleveland & Toledo, 106½; Rock Island, 133; Chicago & Northwestern, 82½; preferred, 90½.

Sterling Exchange was steady at 109½ on 60 day bills. Gold carrying at 6@6½ per cent. in consequence of a large short interest on the market.

Tennessee Bonds opened at 68@68½ for old, with sales at 68; new 68½@68¾, with no sales, and closed lower—old 67½@68½, sales at 68; new 67@68, sales at 67½.

Gold opened in New York at 136¼ and closed at 136½. In this market we learned of only a few sales—$1500 at 135¾, $300 at 135, and $100 at 135½; selling at 136@136½.

COTTON.

The Liverpool market opened quiet but steady—Uplands 11¼@11¼d; Orleans 11¼@11¾d. There was no change at 1:20 p.m. At the close it was quiet—Uplands on the spot 11¼d, afloat 11¼d; Orleans 11¼@11¾d. Sales 10,000 bales.

The New York market opened quiet but steady—Low Middlings 28½c; Uplands 28½@29c; Mobile 29@29½c; Orleans 29½@29½c; Good Middlings 29½c. At 11:55 a.m. the demand was moderate and prices firm. At 2 p.m. it was quiet but steady, and closed quiet but firm—Low Middlings 28½c; Middlings 29c; Mobile 29½c; Orleans 29½c; Good Middlings 30c.

The New Orleans market at 11:30 p.m. was dull and unchanged—Middlings 27@27½c. At 2:15 p.m. it was dull and tending downwards, with sales of 2000 bales. Middlings 27½c.

In this market sales were light and holders generally firm. The only weakness noticeable was with those who had imperative orders to sell, and it must be expected where buyers are shy that in such cases prices will be very irregular. We have no doubt that Middlings sold during the day as low as 27c in these forced sales, but no tables could be found at less than 27¼@27½c, while one sale of 144 bales was reported on a basis of 28c for Middlings. We quote as follows:

TRADE.

Business to-day was active and country teams were numerous upon all of our leading thoroughfares. All of them came in with cotton and go out loaded with meats and supplies generally. Very many of them go with an extra mule or work horse attached to the wagon, showing that they are already making their preparations for the coming planting season.

The committee of Western tobacco men appeared before the Ways and Means Committee on Tuesday, to urge a modification of the internal revenue law, regarding the stamping of all kinds of tobacco, and regarding the extension of further time for stamping of tobacco. The following was their language: "We earnestly oppose any extension of time as only an increase of evil, and most respectfully desire that, upon the basis of inventories already taken by the Department, including all tax paid on goods prior to the passage of the law, and that manufactured under the instructions of the Department, and which complied with all the requirements prior to the 23d of November, stamps be furnished in a safer and more proper manner, being first imprinted with red ink to clearly designate the purpose for which they are intended, and to render those utterly valueless to the manufacturer. We also ask that after the passage of the law, the further sale of those unstamped goods be suspended until stamped, which should be within the shortest possible time, and that upon its accomplishment all tobacco and cigars found on the market without the appropriate stamp, be forfeited. We also insist that all bulk smoking tobacco be first packed in small packages in compliance with the law under the regulations lately issued by the Commissioner, except packages of pressed baled goods not exceeding five pounds, which, from the character of the articles, cannot be repacked without destruction. A bill covering these points will be introduced in the House.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Alice Dean did not get away until late last night. She laid over to get 1060 bales of cotton for Cincinnati.

The Richmond passed down yesterday evening. We are indebted to Will L. Visscher, Esq., editor of the Head Light, for a copy of that spicy sheet, published on board the Richmond. The cut-throat Clayton and his band of knaves yclept his staff went down on this steamer to Helena.

The fine steamer Minneola, Capt. Miller, with Mr. Grubb in the office, will get away to-morrow for Cairo, Evansville, Louisville and Cincinnati. She has splendid passenger accommodations.

The Natoma, Capt. Lee, will back out for Friar's Point to-day at her usual hour. Besides making all way landings the Natoma connects at Helena with the R. P. Converse for Moon Lake. Billy Fields, Sterling Whitehead and Jim Saulsbury are clerks.

The U. S. mail packet Liberty, Capt. J. B. Davis, will be in port to-day, and leaves to-morrow for Duvall's Bluff, Augusta, Jacksonport and all way points on White river, connecting with the Little Rock train and with the Fairy Queen for Little Red, Black and Upper White rivers. Jimmy Thompson and Charley Sharpe are clerks.

The good steamer Linton, Capt. Lee Ware, backs out to-morrow for Wittsburg and all way landings on St. Francis river. She is the only packet this week.

The fine steamer Rubicon, Capt. Wm. Blake, will leave the St. Louis wharfboat to-day at noon for Cairo and St. Louis. Alf. Grissom is her popular chief clerk.

The Bermuda will be in port to leave on Saturday for Pine Bluff. Mr. Rowland is clerk.

The fine steamer Thomas H. Allen, Capt. Reese Pritchard, is the regular U. S. mail Saturday packet for Pine Bluff and Little Rock, and all way points on the Arkansas. She connects with the Fort Smith packets at Little Rock. Walker and Thomas are her clerks.

The Louisville, Capt. Lusk, will pass down to-day at 10 o'clock for Vicksburg and New Orleans.

Capt. W. W. Fenton has disposed of the commanding interest in the Swallow to Capt. Jos. Dunlap, clerk of the Robert Burns. The latter recently commanded the Kenton, and takes charge of the Swallow this trip.

The P. W. Strader, Capt. Alf. Stein, leaves this evening for New Orleans and way points.

The steamer Elk was sold Saturday at Parkersburg, by United States Deputy Marshal W. H. Irwin, for $450, to Capt. J. W. Muhrine, of Wheeling, W. Va.

The Belle Memphis, Capt. Crane, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis. Blenker is clerk.

The Richmond carried off a lot of Memphians, who, when they found Clayton was on board, refused to travel on the boat. The whistle was blown, and a tug went after the passengers and returned them to port.

The Kentucky River Navigation Company have awarded the contracts for damming and locking the Kentucky river up to the Threeforks from what is now the head of Slack-water navigation. The work of this important improvement was to have begun Monday, and two of the locks are to be completed within a year. The work, when completed, will render the river navigable three hundred miles from its mouth.

The Northwestern Transportation Company will limit their boats this year to one hundred tons of freight each, and will run a regular line of ten steamers between Sioux City and Fort Benton. Each boat will be required to make the up trip in twenty-five days. The Deer Lodge is to be lengthened fifty feet, and will run as a passenger packet exclusively. They are building four new boats for the trade.

The steamer Leclaire, which sunk on the falls of the Ohio, Saturday night, was raised by the steamer Champion, and towed down to the Portland wharf, where she will be repaired. She was not badly damaged.

The Northern Line Packet Company, of St. Louis, has put the following steamers into commission for the next season's business: Minneapolis, Dubuque, Minnesota, Davenport, Muscatine, Sucker State, Hawkeye State, Canada, Savannah, City of Keysburg and New Boston.

The ship canal around the lower rapids of the Mississippi river, at Keokuk, Iowa, now in course of construction, with the aid of a government appropriation, is to be seven and a half miles long, and from three hundred to four hundred feet wide, in earth embankments, and two hundred and fifty feet in rock excavation. It will give six feet depth in low water and can have eight feet in high water. The outside wall will be of earth, protected by a stone rip-rap; will be ten feet wide on top, with a slope on sides of one and one half base to one vertical on the outside, and 1½ base to one vertical on the inside, and will vary from eighteen to thirty feet in hight, so as to carry it above the high-water mark of 1851. There is to be a guard-lock at the upper end, and to lift-locks, one near the middle, having a lift of of eight feet, and one at Keokuk, lifting ten and three-fourths feet. The guard lock can also be used as a lift whenever the water in the river is three or four feet above low water mark. The locks are to be 350 long and 80 feet wide. Enough water, it is stated, will be let into the canal to give a flow of one mile per hour, which will give a water-power at Keokuk of about one thousand two hundred horse power. The present appropriation of Congress, under which the work is done, is $700 000. The entire cost of the work is estimated at $2,800,000.

The Richmond's Head Light has the following:

"We understand from reliable authority that the steamer Dexter will make one more trip to New Orleans, and then go into the mail line between Louisville and Cincinnati."

"Great quantities of corn are being shipped to Louisville and New Albany from along the Ohio river, for the purpose of supplying stock dealers, who are sending stock South."
